

Area burnt in Western Australia in prescribed burns conducted by the Department of Biodiversity, Conservation and Attractions and its predecessors and wildfires attended by the same agencies 1999 – 2024

Beth Schultz beth.schultzwa@gmail.com February 2025

	Prescribed burns (ha)	Wildfires attended (ha)
1999-2000	194,968	866,885
2000-2001	138,355	1,840,647
2001-2002	96,878	577,910
2002-2003	255,519	2,111,919
2003-2004	231,905	800,086
2004-2005	403,270	3,832,950
2005-2006	448,529	2,687,516
2006-2007	734,215	1,945,633
2007-2008	932,961	1,425,806
2008-2009	1,053,646	1,742,991
2009-2010	1,276,180	2,602,767
2010-2011	3,228,920	645,505
2011-2012	7,746,499	4,991,506
2012-2013	6,047,352	5,477,394
2013-2014	3,470,284	2,209,619
2014-2015	2,124,809	2,569,695
2015-2016	2,509,846	1,887,954
2016-2017	3,235,754	1,062,958
2017-2018	4,911,044	2,780,972
2018-2019	3,563,139	4,414,215
2019-2020	3,553,230	2,936,520
2020-2021	3,773,235	409,083
2021-2022	4,892,110	2,168,614
2022-2023	4,965,336	863,027
2023-2024	6,083,483	4,581,790

Sources:

Department of Conservation and Land Management, Annual Reports 1999-2000 – 2005-2006

Department of Environment and Conservation, Annual Reports 2006-2007 – 2008-2009

Department of Environment and Conservation, Year Books 2009-2010 – 2012-2013

Department of Parks and Wildlife, Year Books 2013-2014 – 2015-2016

Department of Biodiversity, Conservation and Attractions, Performance Highlights 2016-2017, Annual Reports 2017-2018 – 2023-2024